PRESBYTERIAN SHARING

No longer a stranger

Presbyterians Sharing supports Almanarah church in London, Ontario, which provides community for Arabic-speaking immigrants who come to Canada from the Middle East. Many people's lives have been touched by the ministry, and their stories are incredible and encouraging. A member who recently arrived from Iraq, shares "When we came to Canada, we felt like strangers. I had a huge need to find good and honest friends who spoke my language and knew my culture, to help and support and guide us during our first days in Canada. I thank God I have found Almanarah Church, my new family in Canada. I am not a stranger any more. I consider Almanarah as a mother who gathers her children, provides love and care, carries the heavy load, encourages and guides them to success, and strengthens their faith."

Presbyterians Sharing welcomes the stranger

BOOK STUDY

Rev. Joyce is planning a book study based on the 2002 Christianity Today Book Award winner, If you want to walk on water you've got to get out of the boat.

In this book, author, John Ortberg, invites you to consider the potential that awaits you outside your comfort zone. "The choice is yours to know God as only a water-walker can, aligning yourself with God's purpose for your life in the process."

Choose from the following multi-part sessions:

Oct 3, 10, 17, 24, Nov 7 & 14
(Mon 7:00—8:30)

OR

Oct 6, 13, 20, Nov 3, 10 & 17
(Thu 1:30—3:00)

You're required to purchase the book. The study guide is optional but very helpful. If you require help finding a copy & to register please see Rev. Joyce.

When in Hospital...

When visiting at the Regional Hospital Rev. Joyce only has access to a list of patients designated St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Unfortunately, despite the ongoing efforts of the Council of Clergy and others, on average, only 40% of the patients have any religion listed. In order to receive a visit when in the hospital, please do these two things.

1. ask the hospital staff to verify that your religious designation is correct on your hospital records, and
2. have a family member or friend notify the church office that you are in the hospital and would appreciate a visit.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENTS

In our good works, nothing is our own.

John Calvin (1509-1564), theologian and reformer

When I stand before God at the end of my life, I would hope that I would not have a single bit of talent left, and could say, "I used everything you gave me."

Erma Bombeck

From Rev. Joyce,

Sometimes it is nice to know where we are heading; with that in mind, I thought I would share...

Starting today until Sunday October 23rd we are going to spend some time with the Gospel of Luke and a few of the Parables that Jesus told. People like a good story, and Jesus was definitely a wonderful story teller! He used these short stories to get people's attention, to help them understand a little of how God's world was intended to be, and how we might live into that. The parables are some of the best known scriptures in the Bible, and though they are usually about everyday things, their meanings offer up an opportunity to ponder. The parable's depth of meaning is why these stories continue to intrigue those wanting to go delve further into their faith and understanding of scripture. So let's sit back and imagine sitting around with the group and listening in on Jesus telling the stories...

- ♦ Today - Luke 15:1-10 The Parable of the Lost Sheep & The Lost Coin
- ♦ Sept 18 - Luke 16:1-13 The Parable of the Dishonest Manager
- ♦ Sept 25 - Presbyterian's Sharing Sunday
- ♦ Oct 2 - Luke 17:5-10 Some Sayings of Jesus
- ♦ Oct 9 - Luke 17:11-19 Jesus Cleanses Ten Lepers
- ♦ Oct 16 - Luke 18:1-8 The Parable of the Widow and the Unjust Judge
- ♦ Oct 23 - Luke 18:9-14 The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax collector
