Sensing Christmas

An Advent and Christmas Worship Series

In all the pretty decorations, happy music, and gathering with family or friends, along with the smell of baking, taste of chocolate, and the turkey dinner, that many of us experience or often desire to be part of our Christmas experience, we tend to forget how earthy that first Christmas was. This Advent we look at Christmas again, and while we enjoy our preparations for Christmas, may we also recall the cherished scriptures of new hope in the one called Messiah.

PRESBYTERIAN SHARING

Combating racism in Japan

Gifts to Presbyterians Sharing support David McIntosh, co-director of the Centre for Minority Issues and Mission in Tokyo, which was established as a Christian response to a surge in racist activity in Japan. Hate speech in public places and abusive language via internet primarily targets people of Korean and Chinese heritage in Japan, but also other minority groups. The Centre is an ecumenical initiative led by PCC mission partner the Korean Christian Church in Japan, in collaboration with other Japanese churches, Christian organizations and international church partners. David and his co-director, Rev. KIM Shinya, work with partners to combat racism and urge the government to improve legal and administrative supports for vulnerable minorities. The Centre plans events that bring youth together to learn and think about the world through the eyes and stories of the vulnerable, and to pray and listen for God's call. Presbyterians Sharing walks with vulnerable people

POT LUCK LUNCH

The Congregational Pot Luck Lunch will be held on Sun. Dec. 17 after Worship. There will be a "Special Visitor" stopping by so watch for him! Everyone welcome.

From Rev. Joyce,

Happy New Year! Well, maybe it is better said, Happy Christian New Year. December 3rd marks the beginning of a new liturgical year. It is the first Sunday of Advent, which is a time of preparation for Christians. These four Sundays before Christmas are intended to help us prepare for Christ's coming, and also be a time for remembering that Christ has come. Let me explain. As people of faith we believe that what we experience right here in life is not all there is. Though we don't think about it a lot, and in some ways, hope that we get to live out our days enjoying our family and friends, we also hope for a time when the world will be at peace, that pain and suffering, tears and grief, will no longer be part of the human experience. This is in part what the second coming of Christ is about. Advent also reminds us that Jesus has already come. It's a time to recall the story of the birth of Jesus, whose life and words are documented in the New Testament Gospels. It is in Jesus Christ, who was with God before anything was created, who lived life in human form, who now continues with God, and will be fully present to us in a future time, it is this Jesus that we celebrate and expectantly wait for in this Advent season. May our preparations for Christmas also include the preparations of our hearts and minds for the coming of Christ. Peace and grace to you.
