CHILDREN IN WORSHIP

12 THINGS CHILDREN MISS WHEN THEY ARE NOT IN THE SANCTUARY (3 of 12)

Yes, children at times wiggle, make an amazing amount of noise, and often seem to be enduring rather than participating in the congregation's worship. Because of this parents and even whole congregations sometimes decide to keep the children out of the sanctuary "until they are older." Carolyn Brown writes "I think that is a mistake. When children, even with all their squirming and disrupting, do not share in the congregation's worship regularly they miss out on....

Knowing they are part of something bigger than they are and that it is powerful and good. This is enriched if lots of people know them by name or at least smile and talk to them letting the children know that they are glad they are there."

A PCC MISSION MOMENT

Providing hope for New Canadians

With support from Presbyterians Sharing, Action Réfugiés Montréal provides direct, person-to-person assistance to help refugees start new lives in Canada. They help refugee claimants, accepted refugees and sponsored refugees access protection and justice, and develop a sense of belonging in Canadian society. For more than 20 years, Action Réfugiés has provided programs to create social support and networking opportunities for newly arrived refugee families. Recently, they started a new men's dinner program that offers a meal along with social programming. These programs help to reduce social isolation and provide practical knowledge for living in Canada.

From Rev. Joyce

A whole lot of hours have gone into preparing for the Annual Report in advance of the scheduled Annual Meeting February 10th. People have taken time to write and get the reports to the office, while others reviewed. Time was given by the accountant, church bookkeeper, and bookkeeper for the Trustees to prepare the financial reports. My own time and that of the office administrator was spent in preparing and compiling the report as well as photocopying. Photocopy time alone comes in at over five hours for one hundred copies. Thankfully we can accomplish other tasks at the same time. Finally, two volunteers came in to assist in collating and stapling the whole thing together.

Now it is ready for your part. Please pick up a copy of the Annual Report. Take the time to read the reports both anecdotal and financial. This is a snapshot of our church in 2018. It is an opportunity to honour what has happened in the last year and look together at what 2019 may hold for us. I have been speaking in worship about how each of us is necessary for the whole church to be what God is calling it to be. Taking time to read the report and be present for the meeting is a small way to support each other in ministry. Though St. Andrew's is God's church, we are the stewards of it and the ministry we do here. May we honour one another with our time and attention, giving thanks to God for who we have been, who we are, and who we may become.

OFFERING ENVELOPES

Offering envelopes are available for pickup at the back of the sanctuary. If you do not find a box with your name or wish to have one made for you please let the office know.
