A PCC MISSION MOMENT

World Refugee Day (June 20)

Inspired by God's promise of abundant life, PWS&D envisions a world where no one has to live in danger or exile. Because of the efforts of congregations, presbyteries and other groups involved in refugee sponsorship, those forced to flee their homes out of fear for their lives and liberty are experiencing peace in Canada. This year marks the 40th anniversary of The Presbyterian Church in Canada as a Sponsorship Agreement Holder with the Government of Canada. This World Refugee Day, we are celebrating the partnership between PWS&D and sponsoring groups and the life-giving work that welcomes refugees to Canada. Together, we continue to journey alongside refugees as they search for peace and security.

From Rev. Joyce

This year marks the 25th anniversary commemorating the adoption of the Confession of the Presbyterian Church in Canada by the 120th General Assembly. Here is some background as written by Stephen Allen, recently retired as the Associate Secretary of Justice Ministries for the PCC.

"The Confession of The Presbyterian Church in Canada was presented to Mr. Phil Fontaine, then Grand Chief of the Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs, on October 8, 1994 at The Forks in Winnipeg, Manitoba by the Moderator of the 120th General Assembly, the Rev. Dr. George Vais, and former President of the Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. Kay Cowper.

The Confession, now translated into Dakota, English, French, Korean, Ojibwe, and Plains Cree, was presented to Mr. Fontaine. Acknowledging the harm done to Aboriginal languages through assimilation policies and the legacy of the Indian Residential Schools system, the translation of the Confession into Aboriginal languages recognizes and honours the importance of Aboriginal languages to Aboriginal culture and identity in Canada, and, as such, to all Canadians. The Presbyterian Church in Canada is committed to living out its Confession to "seek opportunities to walk with Aboriginal peoples to find healing and wholeness together as God's people" with justice, peace and in friendship."
