A PCC MISSION MOMENT

Bibi's Healthy Family

In the village of Ziarat, Afghanistan, Bibi is mother to nine children. For many women like Bibi, having many children is partly due to a lack of access to information about family planning. Frequent pregnancies and limited healthcare facilities contribute to Afghanistan's high maternal mortality rate. When a community health worker from a PWS&D-supported health centre came to examine Bibi, the young mother learned about the benefits of child spacing. "I am advising other women in the village to adopt family planning methods as it is for the betterment of the family as a whole," says Bibi.

A woman's ability to choose when to become pregnant helps families improve their well-being, increases economic opportunity and promotes gender equality.

From Joyce

As I sit to write today, I find there are many random thoughts going through my head. I review my experiences from the past year, ponder the peace of spending time with my daughter, son-in-law, and granddaughter after Christmas, thinking of phone calls with family and giving thanks for facetime and WhatsApp that allow me to see my kids and my dad as we talk. Being a grandparent, mother, and daughter living far from those I love most dear is much different in 2020 than when my children were growing up when pictures still had to be sent through the mail and a voice on the other end of the line were all that tethered family together. Yes, I am well aware that the generation before me often only had letters to share the events in each other's lives. Still, I am also looking very much forward. I wish I had 2020 vision so that I could anticipate what our church is going to experience in the coming year. I must say that I always have hope for the future. I don't believe that God is done working with those of us that call St. Andrew's our church home. I recall the candles of the Advent wreath; hope, love, joy, and peace, with the Christ candle at the center. These are what drive my personal faith, but it is what the church is called to. May our worship and work hold at the center, Christ, so that hope, love, joy, and peace will abound. It is in this way that we will be able to respond, restore, and rejoice together as God's people in the coming year.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Hand-crafted shawls are available for gifting to anyone you know that may be experiencing difficult times in their lives.

The soft, warm wrap is a comforting reminder that others care about them. We encourage you to contact Terry (577-5567), Rev. Joyce (632-8348) or the Church Office (622-4273) to arrange to pick up a shawl. There is no charge for the shawls.
