PCC MISSION MOMENTS

In Malawi, the Mulanje Mission Hospital provides care and support to orphans through its community-based program. Vocational skills, such as livestock farming, are taught to out-of-school children as a means for achieving economic empowerment. Brian lives with his grandmother. Through the program, he started goat farming, which has allowed his family to pay for food and other necessities and has also helped him establish a sustainable livelihood. "After the mother of the children died, things have been difficult. We had nothing to depend on during hard times, but now things are becoming smooth as we can sell goats and buy grain and other basic needs," his grandmother expressed. This project is supported by Presbyterian World Service & Development.

PRAYERS FROM THE HEART

Dear God Creator of all things please remember us as we move into another month.

Remind us that we should love one another as you have loved us.

Help us with the challenges that face us being mindful of the needs of others.

Remember all those people who do not have the good fortune to live in a country blessed with selfless volunteers who have kept us safe through these difficult times.

Your everlasting love is felt every day and we feel comfort in this unconditional love.

We pray in your name and through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen

From Joyce

I must say that it is good to be back in the sanctuary for worship and have other people here too. To be together as a community of faith is life-giving for me and I hope it is also life-giving for those who attend. There is something to be said for joining voices in spoken prayer and in singing hymns, hearing scripture and a message as one.

Online worship is also a really important part of our ministry now and the feedback I've received about how much it is appreciated, is a gift. I feel like our community of faith has expanded so far beyond these walls. When I work on the online service, I think of myself as one on one with you who are taking the time to worship. I often think of the many individuals who I know are worshipping in this way. I hope that you feel a connection with our community of faith and with me regardless of what day of the week or time of day you are viewing the service.

This congregation both in person and online is one that I appreciate so much! It is with gratitude beyond measure that I ministry with and among you. I trust that God is with us in the power of the Holy Spirit and will guide us as to how to minister to one another and to those who do not yet know of God's love for them as we look to being the church in a world and community in need.
